The General Secretaries,
All Affiliated Unions,

Dear Comrades,

Sub: Brief about the meeting of the Cadre Restructuring Committee held on 13.09.2022

As per notification of the Railway Board, meeting of the Cadre Restructuring Committee was held today, i.e. on 13th September, 2022, in Rail Bhawan, New Delhi.

While Railway Board was represented by the PED(Staff), Railway Board, as Chairperson, EDPC-II, Railway Board, as Convener, and PED(IR), EDF(E), EDPC-I and EDE(N) as Members.

AIRF was represented by the undersigned and Dr. N. Kanniah, President/AIRF, Shri J.R. Bhosale, Working President/AIRF, Shri Ch. Sankara Rao, Treasurer/AIRF, Shri S.K. Tyagi, Asstt. General Secretary/AIRF, Shri Mukesh Mathur, Asstt. General Secretary/AIRF, Shri Venu P. Nair, Asstt. General Secretary/AIRF.

Addressing the meeting, the undersigned highlighted that, many categories were awaiting Cadre Restructuring after 2013 and 7th CPC merged the grades and lot of upgradation of the infrastructure happened in the Railways, Recruitment Qualification increased etc. We also stressed that Cadre Restructuring Committee should formulate immediate the proposals and quick action should be taken as this exercise is self-financing. Especially S&T, Trackmen, Pointsmen, Artisans, 30% upgradation of the all erstwhile Group 'D' posts to GP Rs.1900, all Technical and Non Technical Supervisors Posts, CMT Organisation, Medical Categories. Running Staff with increased speed and technology in the Locos require higher percentages. Level-6(7th CPC Pay Matrix) should be provided wherever it is not given. Apex Grade GP Rs.5400 is to be given to the Supervisors in GP Rs.4200 and GP Rs.4600 without delay. To retain talented persons and attract new talented persons Cadre Restructuring Committee should improve percentage of higher grade posts. This exercise should be finalized by the end of 2022.

The PED(Staff), Railway Board, assured to do in positive way.

AIRF also demanded that the proposals in regard to S&T Cadre and Pointsmen(report already submitted by the Committee) should be cleared urgently.

This is for your information.

Comradely yours,

(Shiva Gopal Mishra)
General Secretary
